EXPLORING THE UNIVERSAL PLEASURE OF
GOOD OLD FASHIONED MAIL AT AN ART-
INFUSED SUPPER CLUB.

The champagne was chilled and the evening temperature mild as we opened the doors to a special Supper Club ahead of our first Brisbane shop opening on James Street. A neon glow from the gallery sign illuminated the bustle outside, while indoors a collection of locals reveled in great food, wine and conversation.

TW Fine Art gallery provided the space for guests to connect over an evening of Real Talk. Surrounded by works from artists Max Presneill and Matt Sheridan, the group was animated and ready to engage – the conversation jumped from definitive moments in one’s life to cloning. The answers were sometimes unexpected, but the conversation often returned to mutual points of interest – digital boundaries, the importance of intentions and what it means to lead a
